FRENCH LOUIS XVI WALNUT SIDE TABLE WITH SINGLE DRAWER AND FLUTED LEGS

$4,995

Crafted in France during the late 18th century, this Louis XVI walnut side table presents a refined neoclassical silhouette ideal for a variety of interiors. The circular top is constructed with beautifully figured walnut and features a sunburst design created by radial bookmatched walnut veneer. Below, a discreet single drawer is integrated into the apron, retaining its round brass pull. It is constructed without dovetails, a detail consistent with regional French craftsmanship of the late 18th century.

The table stands on three fluted, tapered legs with turned collars and carved rosettes at the corners of the apron, a classical detail characteristic of Louis XVI design. Its proportions offer versatility as a side table, drinks table, or nightstand. The mellow patina of the walnut is consistent with its age, offering warmth and character without sacrificing elegance.

Solid, elegant, and understated, this antique table is a timeless piece that bridges utility and style with quiet sophistication.
