FRENCH NAPOLÉON III PERIOD 1860S WALNUT CONSOLE TABLE WITH ORIGINAL MARBLE TOP

$13,550

A French Napoléon III period walnut console table from circa 1860 with original marble top and carved gilt accents. This French Napoléon III period console table, dating back to around 1860, is a masterpiece of timeless elegance and intricate craftsmanship. Crafted from rich walnut and adorned with exquisite gilt accents, it epitomizes the opulence of its era. At the heart of this console table's design are two faceted columns in the front, elegantly supporting the original marble top. These columns, with their ornate carving and gilded details, draw the eye with their classical allure. The marble top adds a touch of luxury, creating a perfect surface for displaying cherished decor pieces, family photos, or fresh floral arrangements. The table's beauty doesn't stop at the top; its lower shelf gracefully curves inward, creating a harmonious design flow. The gilt frieze accents enhance the sense of opulence, making this piece a striking focal point in any room. Practicality meets aesthetics with this console table. Place it in your entryway to welcome guests with a touch of grandeur, or position it in your living room to showcase your favorite collectibles. Its versatility ensures it complements various interior styles, from traditional to eclectic. This French Napoléon III console table is not just a piece of furniture; it's a work of art that elevates the ambiance of any space it graces. With its timeless beauty and impressive presence, it's an investment in both style and history, promising to be a cherished heirloom for generations to come. Incorporate it into your home to add a touch of Napoléon III era grandeur to your living space.
