GLASS TOP COFFEE TABLE WITH FRETWORK MOTIFS AND SCROLLING FEET, CIRCA 1950

$2,250

An Asian coffee table with carved fretwork top under glass and linear scrolling feet, circa 1950. This table's most captivating feature is the intricate fretwork that adorns the top, protected under a layer of clear glass, allowing one to admire the detailed work without the worry of wear and tear. The dark finish of the wood adds a depth to the design, highlighting the meticulous scrolling fretwork that is a testament to the skilled artisans. Complemented by linear scrolling feet that continue the theme of elegant curves, this table stands sturdily as a centerpiece in any living space. The fretwork spandrels at each corner of the table enhance its visual appeal, making it not just a piece of furniture but a work of art. Ideal for a home that appreciates global influences, this coffee table can serve as a focal point in a living room, where it can host coffee table books, decorative items, or simply serve as a place to gather around. It can also function well in a more subdued role, perhaps in a study, where it can add a touch of sophistication without overwhelming the space. Regardless of where it resides, this coffee table will enhance the home with its artistry and character, ensuring that it is not only seen but also admired.
