ITALIAN 19TH CENTURY TÔLE FOUR-LIGHT LANTERN WITH PALMETTE MOTIFS, USA WIRED

$4,500

An Italian tôle four-light lantern from the 19th century with patinated finish, palmette motifs and glass panels. This enchanting 19th-century Italian tôle lantern exudes timeless elegance and charm, making it a captivating addition to any interior. Featuring a beautifully patinated finish, the lantern is adorned with intricate palmette motifs that enhance its classical allure. The glass panels allow the light to softly diffuse, creating a warm and inviting ambiance. The lantern houses four lights, providing ample illumination while maintaining its antique aesthetic. Crowned with a regal motif at the top, this piece exemplifies the refined artistry of the 19th century. The nicely weathered appearance adds a touch of authenticity and character, making each lantern uniquely appealing. Wired for the USA, this lantern is ready to bring a touch of historical sophistication to your home. Its height, mentioned without the chain, makes it versatile for various placements. Ideal for hanging in an entryway, it greets guests with a welcoming glow. It can also be a striking centerpiece above a dining table, adding a sense of grandeur to your mealtime gatherings. In a living room, it offers both functional lighting and decorative elegance. This Italian tôle lantern seamlessly blends antique beauty with modern functionality, making it a perfect choice for those who appreciate historical decor and timeless design.
