ITALIAN WALNUT TABLE WITH STAR INLAY AND TURNED LEGS, 19TH CENTURY

$4,500

A 19th-century Italian walnut side table showcasing refined craftsmanship and decorative detail. The rectangular top is inlaid with a stylized starburst motif bordered by a geometric chain pattern—an elegant example of marquetry that draws the eye without overwhelming the clean silhouette. The walnut retains a rich, well-aged finish that highlights the natural grain and depth of tone.

Below, a single drawer with a smooth face adds discreet storage, ideal for a notepad or accessories in a library or sitting room. The table stands on bold turned legs with strong tapering and ring-turned detail, connected by a shaped X-stretcher that enhances both form and stability.

This versatile antique table works well as a writing table, occasional table, or accent piece beside a sofa or window. Classic proportions and solid construction make it a functional addition to both traditional and transitional interiors. Made in Italy circa 1880, it reflects the balance of utility and decorative artistry so characteristic of late 19th-century Italian furniture.
