JAMES MONT STYLE BRONZE TABLE LAMP WITH PATINATED FINISH ON LUCITE BASE

$1,250

This cast bronze table lamp draws on the bold, sculptural aesthetic of James Mont, whose designs often bridged Eastern and Western influences through commanding forms and luxurious materials. The lamp's elongated silhouette is richly detailed with raised motifs, including stylized florals and mythical figures that evoke the surface of ancient ritual vessels. Its sharply tapered profile, flanked by small handles, rests on a thick, circular Lucite base that introduces a clear, contemporary contrast to the heavily oxidized surface.

The bronze has developed a mottled verdigris patina, with variations of green and blue that emphasize the lamp's relief decoration and lend an archaeological presence. The piece has been rewired for modern use and fitted with a brass socket. Its scale and dramatic texture make it a strong candidate for interiors favoring Hollywood Regency, chinoiserie, or Brutalist-inspired styles.

The lamp stands approximately 29 inches tall and measures 8 inches in diameter at its widest point. The Lucite base is polished and cleanly mounted.
