LATE VICTORIAN OAK BARLEY TWIST ARMCHAIR WITH ZEBRA HIDE, BALL AND CLAW FEET

$4,800

A late Victorian oak barley twist armchair with zebra hide upholstery and ball and claw feet. This late Victorian oak barley twist armchair exudes an exceptional blend of traditional craftsmanship and exotic allure, captivating with its unique combination of materials and design. The chair features a striking bleached oak frame adorned with barley twist arm supports and front legs, which culminate in bold ball and claw feet. The back legs showcase a gentle saber curve, providing a balanced silhouette that enhances the chair's visual appeal. The zebra hide upholstery on both the seat and back brings a dynamic contrast to the warm, natural tones of the bleached oak, creating a compelling focal point that draws the eye. The vibrant pattern of the zebra hide adds a touch of the wild, perfectly complementing the refined detailing of the oak frame. This chair will make a distinctive statement in any living room or study, where it can serve as a functional piece of art or a comfortable seat that adds character and sophistication to the decor. Positioned by a fireplace or as an accent piece in a luxurious office, this armchair seamlessly merges antique charm with contemporary flair, making it a truly unique addition to any interior setting.
