MID-CENTURY ENGLISH COPPER PLANTER WITH PAW FEET - ARTS AND CRAFTS STYLE

$2,100

An English Arts & Crafts style copper planter. This remarkable English mid-century copper planter embodies the timeless elegance and skilled craftsmanship associated with Arts and Crafts design. Showcasing a beautifully hammered texture and accented by a riveted band, this piece brings a warm, organic aesthetic to your living space. Set on sturdy, paw-shaped feet, it has an understated whimsy that contrasts perfectly with the rich, patinated copper finish, creating a stunning balance between sophistication and charm. This planter can serve as a unique focal point in any room, whether it's gracing an entryway, adding depth to a fireplace hearth, or enhancing a sunlit corner with lush greenery. Its substantial presence and warm tones make it an ideal choice for plant lovers seeking a vintage vessel that elevates the presentation of indoor plants or florals. Alternatively, this copper vessel can stand alone as an eye-catching decorative statement, blending seamlessly with rustic, industrial, or modern interiors. With its distinct character and versatile appeal, this mid-century copper planter not only offers practicality but also brings a sense of history and artistry to the home, making it a prized addition to any curated collection of vintage decor.
