MIDCENTURY FRENCH GILTWOOD SUNBURST MIRROR WITH CLOUDY FRAME, CIRCA 1950

$1,500

A French giltwood sunburst mirror from the Midcentury period, with cloudy frame and carved rays. Bask in the radiant beauty of this French giltwood sunburst mirror from the Midcentury period, a piece that artfully combines the brilliance of the sun with the sophistication of French design. This mirror, with its cloud-themed frame and carved rays, is a testament to the elegance and creativity of midcentury craftsmanship. The heart of the piece is a small circular mirror plate, crisply reflecting light and adding depth to any room. This central plate is encircled by a cloudy frame, a feature that adds a touch of mystery and artistic flair. Radiating from this intriguing core are carved rays, each one meticulously crafted to capture the dynamic essence of sunlight. Painted touches in the carved parts of the rays accentuate the subtle detailing, adding a layer of visual interest and highlighting the unique texture of the giltwood. The mirror's golden hues and sunburst design make it a stunning focal point, perfect for brightening and enlarging any space. In a contemporary home, this sunburst mirror serves as a captivating piece of wall art in a living room, bedroom, or entryway. Its reflective qualities can illuminate dark corners, while its artistic design adds a touch of midcentury elegance and the timeless allure of French craftsmanship to your interior. Whether used as a statement piece or part of a curated collection of art, this giltwood sunburst mirror brings a burst of beauty and a ray of light into your home.
