MIDCENTURY FRENCH STAR SHAPED LIGHT FIXTURE WITH MIRRORED PANELS, USA WIRED

$2,750

A small French star shaped light fixture from the Midcentury period, with antiqued mirrored panels and single socket. This French Midcentury star-shaped light fixture brings a celestial touch to any interior with its antiqued mirrored panels and elegant, compact design. Each facet of the star is fitted with a mirrored panel that has been treated to have an antiqued appearance, adding a layer of vintage charm and enhancing the diffusion of light. Central to this design is a single light socket that has been rewired for compatibility in the USA, ensuring it meets modern electrical standards. Perfect for adding a decorative yet functional lighting element, this fixture can be placed in smaller spaces or areas that require a focused light source, such as over a reading nook, in a cozy corner of a living room, or in a hallway. Its reflective surfaces will cast a warm, inviting glow while also creating a dynamic interplay of light and shadow in the surrounding area. Ideal for those looking to incorporate unique vintage elements into their decor, this light fixture pairs well with both contemporary and traditional styles. It offers a distinctive blend of old-world charm and midcentury modern simplicity, making it a captivating addition to any home.
