MIDCENTURY SPANISH GILT METAL CROWN CHANDELIER WITH FROSTED GLASS DIFFUSER

$1,700

A Spanish midcentury gilt metal chandelier with dramatic leaf-form details and frosted glass diffuser. Crown-like in form, this sculptural ceiling fixture features an expressive array of flared metal leaves, each hand-finished in a warm, antiqued gilt patina that enhances the natural texture and movement of the design. The round base supports two interior bulbs, concealed behind a frosted glass panel that softens the light and adds an ambient, downward glow.

Professionally rewired for the USA, the fixture is suspended by a warm-toned metal chain and matching canopy, ready for direct ceiling installation. The size and visual impact make it a strong contender for a variety of spaces—from an entryway or powder room where a bold, sculptural piece sets the tone, to a dining room or breakfast nook looking for a touch of Spanish modernism with patinated elegance.

This chandelier pairs beautifully with wood, stone, and vintage textiles, especially in Mediterranean-style homes, rustic modern interiors, or any space needing a little edge with warmth. It casts light with personality and history—grounded in midcentury design yet visually timeless.

With its layered detailing, tactile finish, and sculptural silhouette, this Spanish gilt metal fixture elevates ceiling lighting from utility to centerpiece—bringing artisanal craftsmanship and refined drama into the room.
