MODERN BRUSHED NICKEL AND GLASS HANGING LANTERN WITH ARCHED FRAME AND FOUR LIGHT

$3,750

This lantern is executed in a brushed nickel finish with a clean, architectural form that draws on traditional lantern silhouettes while maintaining a restrained, modern profile. The structure features a square glazed body framed by slender metal supports, surmounted by softly arched bands that rise to a central suspension point.

The satin finish lends the piece a muted, contemporary character, avoiding the reflectivity of polished metal while emphasizing its smooth, uniform surface. The curved upper structure introduces a gentle contrast to the otherwise linear geometry, giving the lantern a balanced and versatile presence.

The interior houses four candle-style lights arranged on scrolling arms around a central stem, providing even illumination within the glass enclosure. Professionally rewired for use in the United States, the fixture is ready for installation.

With its neutral finish and adaptable design, this lantern is well suited for entryways, hallways, or kitchens, complementing both traditional and contemporary interiors.
