PAIR OF 1920S CONTINENTAL UPHOLSTERED OTTOMANS WITH CARVED S-SCROLL BASES

$4,500

A pair of Rococo style Continental 1920s white painted ottomans with S-Scroll legs. Elevate your home with this stunning pair of Continental ottomans, boasting elegant Rococo influences. The hand-carved wooden bases showcase S-scroll details, fluid curves, and turned side stretchers, all painted in a soft, aged white finish that enhances their timeless character. Newly upholstered in a neutral linen fabric, the plush cushions provide a sophisticated contrast to the ornate bases, blending classic opulence with modern functionality. These ottomans offer incredible versatility for a variety of interiors. Use them as stylish seating in a living room or tuck them under a console table for a layered design aesthetic. They're perfect as footstools in front of a sofa or armchair, providing both comfort and elegance. In the bedroom, place them at the foot of the bed for a luxurious touch, or utilize them as accents in a dressing room to elevate the space's charm. Whether paired with antique furnishings or juxtaposed with contemporary decor, this pair of ottomans brings a refined sensibility to any room. Their compact size and understated palette make them ideal for smaller spaces or as statement pieces in larger settings. With their Rococo-inspired scrollwork and updated upholstery, they strike a perfect balance between old-world craftsmanship and modern practicality, making them a delightful addition to any curated home. The base is 30"W x 19.5"D and the top is 22.5"W x 19"D.
