PAIR OF 19TH CENTURY COUNTRY FRENCH PINE CONSOLE CABINETS WITH STORAGE

$16,000

These 19th-century pine console cabinets embody the rustic elegance of country French design. Crafted with a striking polygonal form, they balance architectural presence with a relaxed, timeworn patina. The naturally aged pine showcases a soft, neutral tone, enhanced by subtle distressing that highlights the grain and craftsmanship. Each cabinet features paneled doors with simple brass knobs, opening to reveal a spacious interior with a single shelf—ideal for tucking away everyday essentials while maintaining an uncluttered look.

With their symmetrical design, these cabinets bring warmth and structure to a space. Placed in an entryway, they offer refined storage with an inviting, old-world charm. As side cabinets in a dining room, they provide a beautiful base for displaying serving pieces or decorative objects. Their size and understated elegance also make them perfect for flanking a fireplace, where their sculptural silhouette enhances the room's architectural appeal.

Blending rustic authenticity with timeless sophistication, these cabinets are versatile enough to suit both traditional and modern interiors. Whether used as functional storage or decorative anchors, they bring the relaxed refinement of the French countryside into any home.
