PAIR OF 19TH CENTURY ENGLISH OAK STOOLS WITH CUSTOM LINEN UPHOLSTERY

$5,995

A pair of 19th-century English oak stools with custom linen upholstery. The square seats are covered in a custom neutral linen fabric, accented by an aged brass nailhead trim that enhances their classic charm. Beneath, the sturdy oak frames showcase beautifully turned legs with reeded accents, lending a touch of understated elegance. The deep patina of the wood highlights its age and quality, ensuring these stools are not just functional but also visually compelling.

Versatile in use, these stools effortlessly complement traditional and contemporary interiors alike. Place them in front of a fireplace for additional seating, tuck them beneath a console table for an organized look, or use them at the foot of a bed to create a layered, inviting atmosphere. Their compact form makes them ideal for small spaces, while their robust construction ensures durability for years to come.

Whether styled as accent pieces in a living room or used as practical seating in an entryway, this pair of English oak stools offers both form and function. Their blend of fine detailing and rich materials makes them a valuable addition to any well-appointed home.
