PAIR OF 19TH CENTURY ENGLISH REGENCY WALNUT SIDE TABLES WITH CARVED DETAILS

$15,750

A refined pair of 19th-century English Regency walnut tables, blending sculptural elegance with timeless craftsmanship. Their round tops showcase rich walnut grain with intricate burl figuring, framed by a delicate raised lip. A striking frieze adorned with carved star motifs adds depth and texture, reinforcing their neoclassical influence. Gracefully curved legs, detailed with floral embellishments at the knees, taper down to a quatrefoil base with clawed feet—balancing symmetry with fluid movement.

Versatile in both form and function, these tables bring a layer of sophistication to any setting. Perfectly scaled as side tables beside a settee, they add height and refinement to a living space. Their sculptural bases lend themselves well to displaying curated objects, from artful ceramics to fresh florals. Flanking a fireplace, they introduce symmetry and architectural presence. The raised gallery rims make them ideal for serving, ensuring that drinks or decorative accents remain secure.

These Regency tables harmonize traditional craftsmanship with an airy silhouette, making them a timeless addition to both classic and contemporary interiors.
