PAIR OF ART DECO 1930S ZEBRA HIDE CONSOLE TABLES WITH BRASS NAILHEAD TRIM

$14,000

This pair of Art Deco console tables offers a striking balance of exotic texture and architectural form. Each table features a rectangular top upholstered in authentic zebra hide, edged with bold brass nailhead trim that emphasizes the natural striping and creates a refined decorative border. The tops rest on a columnar wooden pedestal with vertical fluting, supported by an ebonized plinth base that grounds the design with a strong geometric presence.

Reflecting the adventurous spirit of early 20th-century interiors, these consoles combine streamlined elegance with luxurious materials. The zebra hide introduces organic pattern and movement, while the crisp lines of the pedestal bases provide architectural contrast. Symmetrical in design and well-scaled, they function beautifully as statement console tables, sofa tables, or dramatic entryway accents.

Measuring 44 inches wide by 18.25 inches deep and 29.75 inches high, they offer generous surface space while maintaining a clean silhouette. With their rare combination of modernist sophistication and exotic glamour, these Art Deco consoles make a distinctive addition to refined interiors.
