PAIR OF ASIAN PORCELAIN VASE TABLE LAMPS WITH BROWN DÉCOR ON LUCITE BASES

$2,850

This pair of Asian porcelain table lamps features elegant vase-form bodies with a soft white glaze and hand-painted branch decoration in warm brown and golden tones. The elongated baluster shape gives each lamp a graceful vertical presence, while the branching motif adds movement across the rounded bodies without feeling overly ornate.

Each porcelain vase is mounted on a clear Lucite base, giving the pair a lighter, more contemporary presentation. The brass hardware and fittings add warmth and contrast against the white porcelain and transparent plinths. Their scale makes them well suited for bedside tables, a console, buffet, or a pair of end tables flanking a sofa.

The lamps combine traditional Asian-inspired porcelain decoration with a clean decorative mounting, making them easy to place in both classic and transitional interiors. Their neutral palette and warm metallic accents allow them to work with antiques, lacquered furniture, natural wood, or more contemporary upholstery.
