PAIR OF ENGLISH 1920S COPPER CACHE-POT PLANTERS WITH ETCHED FOLIAGE DÉCOR

$4,500

A pair of English copper cache-pot planters from the early 20th century, with ring pull handles, etched foliage and raised motifs. Created in England during the first quarter of the 20th century, each of this pair of copper cache-pot planters features a circular shape adorned with an abundant yet subtle etched décor depicting scrollwork of foliage. The belly is adorned with raised motifs rhythmically marking the lower section. The cache-pots each comprise of two lateral ring pulls with reeded accents, allowing them to be moved more easily. With their richly executed décor and nice patina, this pair of English copper cache-pot planters circa 1920 will make for a great addition to any home, placed in a living room, entryway or under a covered patio.
