PAIR OF ENGLISH 19TH CENTURY HARDWOOD BOBBIN STOOLS WITH LINEN UPHOLSTERY

$4,500

This pair of 19th-century English stools brings timeless character with their hand-turned bobbin legs and warm hardwood frames. Recently upholstered in a custom linen fabric, they offer a refined contrast between the soft, textured seat and the intricate turned woodwork below. The subtle nailhead trim along the seat adds a touch of understated elegance, while the rich patina of the hardwood enhances their classic appeal.

Versatile and effortlessly stylish, these stools can serve a range of purposes throughout the home. Position them at the foot of a bed for a refined yet functional accent, or use them as extra seating in a living space when entertaining. Their compact proportions make them perfect for tucking under a console or coffee table when not in use, while their sturdy craftsmanship ensures they remain both decorative and practical additions to any setting.

Whether styled in a traditional space or used to add depth to a more contemporary interior, these bobbin-leg stools blend form and function with timeless appeal. Their combination of sculptural design and neutral upholstery makes them easy to pair with a variety of décor styles, from classic English country to relaxed modern. Ideal for those who appreciate fine craftsmanship and adaptable design, they offer an elegant, textural layer to any home.
