PAIR OF ENGLISH 19TH CENTURY OAK STOOLS WITH SABER LEGS AND CUSTOM UPHOLSTERY

$5,400

A pair of English oak stools from the 19th century with saber legs and custom upholstery. This pair of English oak stools from the 19th century is a splendid blend of traditional design and modern craftsmanship. Each stool stands on elegantly curved saber legs, a classic feature that adds a dynamic sense of movement and grace to the piece. The custom upholstery is made of high-quality linen, presenting a smooth and comfortable seating surface. The linen is meticulously secured with a brass nailhead trim, which not only ensures durability but also adds a decorative touch that enhances the stools' overall aesthetic appeal.

These stools are versatile pieces of furniture that can be seamlessly integrated into various home decor styles, from classic to contemporary. They could serve as additional seating in a living room, by a fireplace, or be placed under a console table in an entryway for a practical yet stylish accent. Their compact size and elegant design make them an excellent choice for use in smaller spaces or as complementary pieces in larger rooms. The combination of the rich oak wood with the light linen upholstery and brass accents creates a contrast that is both striking and sophisticated, making these stools a charming addition to any home.
