PAIR OF ENGLISH VICTORIAN 19TH CENTURY RED LACQUER CELLARETTES WITH CHINOISERIES

$10,800

A pair of English Victorian period red lacquered tôle cellarettes from the 19th century with gilded Chinoiserie décor and lion paw feet. This exquisite pair of English Victorian period cellarettes captivates with its vibrant red lacquered finish and meticulously gilded Chinoiserie décor, standing on imposing brass lion paw feet. Crafted in the 19th century, these cellarettes exhibit tapering lines that enhance their elegance. The Chinoiserie decoration, a testament to the Victorian fascination with the East, showcases Chinese figures set within traditional landscapes, surrounded by fluttering birds and delicate butterflies. Each cellarette is adorned on its sides with lush foliage and practical ring pulls, while the backs echo the theme with additional avian motifs among the leaves. In a contemporary home, these cellarettes could serve as statement pieces in a dining room, living area, or a sophisticated home bar setup. They could be repurposed to store wines, spirits, or as unique side tables that spark conversation. Their rich history and intricate design make them not just furniture but pieces of art that add a touch of vintage luxury and global appeal to any interior design scheme. The combination of functional design and decorative appeal allows these cellarettes to blend seamlessly into modern homes, offering a splendid nod to the past while fulfilling contemporary needs.
