PAIR OF FRENCH 1860S NAPOLEON III PERIOD WALNUT CONSOLE TABLES WITH MARBLE TOPS

$22,500

A pair of French Napoleon III period walnut console tables from the mid 19th century, with grey marble tops and bronze motifs. Born in France during the reign of Emperor Napoleon III, each of this pair of console tables features a lovely grey marble top, sitting above a veneered apron accented in its center with a bronze foliage motif. Each table is raised on a base presenting column-shaped turned legs in the front and straight supports in the back, connected to one another through an arched lower shelf. The ebonized bun feet create a lovely contrast of colors that provides a perfect conclusion to the ensemble. With their elegant lines and delicate décor, these French Second Empire console tables circa 1860 will bring a refined touch to any living room or foyer.
