PAIR OF FRENCH 1870S NEOCLASSICAL STYLE WOODEN CONSOLE TABLES WITH MARBLE TOPS

$11,000

A pair of French neoclassical style wooden console tables from the late 19th century, with white marble tops. Born in France at the end of emperor Napoleon III's reign, each of this pair of Neoclassical style console tables features a rectangular white marble top (more recent than the rest), sitting above an elegant apron adorned with fluted motifs. Each table is raised on four fluted legs presenting square block joints, connecting the legs to one another on the sides through plain stretchers. With their clean lines and lovely wooden patina, these French neoclassical style marble top console tables circa 1870 will be great decorative additions to any living room or foyer.
