PAIR OF FRENCH 19TH CENTURY MAHOGANY TRAY TOP BEDSIDE TABLES WITH TWO DRAWERS

$7,200

A pair of French mahogany bedside tables from the 19th century with tray tops, two drawers each, discreet banding, lower shelves and ebonized carved diamond motifs on the knees. This elegant pair of French mahogany bedside tables hails from the 19th century, exuding a timeless charm that melds classic design elements with practical functionality. These tables are a testament to the skilled craftsmanship of their era and are destined to be cherished additions to any bedroom setting. Each table features a refined tray top, providing a stable and secure surface for displaying bedside essentials, such as lamps, books, or decorative items. The tray tops are complemented by discreet banding along the edges, subtly enhancing the overall design without overpowering it. In addition to their surface space, the tables offer convenient storage with two drawers each. These drawers are perfect for stowing away personal belongings and keeping the space neat and organized. They are fitted with understated brass pulls, maintaining the tables' seamless aesthetic. Below the drawers, lower shelves provide additional display or storage space, allowing for even greater versatility in their use. The lower shelves blend harmoniously with the rest of the design, creating a cohesive visual appeal. The tables stand on finely crafted legs, adorned with ebonized carved diamond motifs on the knees. These details add a touch of sophistication and discreet visual interest to the design without detracting from its refined simplicity. This pair of 19th-century French mahogany bedside tables is an exquisite combination of style, practicality, and craftsmanship. With their tray tops, two drawers, discreet banding, lower shelves, and ebonized carved diamond motifs, these tables are the epitome of classic French design and are sure to elevate the ambiance of any bedroom.
