PAIR OF FRENCH 19TH CENTURY PAINTED ARMCHAIRS WITH CARVED FOLIAGE AND UPHOLSTERY

$8,250

A pair of French painted wood armchairs from the 19th century, with carved foliage motifs, yellow, white and turquoise accents and new linen upholstery. Created in France during the dynamic 19th century, each of this pair of armchairs features a curving back topped with a carved flower flanked with palmettes on the upper rail. Two open arms with scrolling extremities carved with acanthus leaves and rosettes are coming to rest on each side of a seat newly upholstered with a neutral toned linen fabric. Each chair is accented with touches of yellow and white with a subtle hint of turquoise. The base is made of four legs, the front ones being tapered while the hind ones are saber. The front ones are richly carved with foliage falling down the tapering lines, while the back remains bare. With their Classical lines and ornate décor, this pair of 19th century French armchairs with custom upholstery will make for an elegant addition to any home, particularly placed in a living room or bedroom.
