PAIR OF FRENCH DIRECTOIRE STYLE MIDCENTURY GILTWOOD STOOLS WITH NEW UPHOLSTERY

$5,995

A pair of French vintage Directoire style giltwood stools from the mid 20th century with carved rosettes, fluted accents, saber legs and new linen upholstery. This handsome pair of French vintage Directoire style giltwood stools from the mid-20th century exudes an undeniable air of elegance and sophistication. The harmonious blend of design elements harkens back to the refined aesthetics inspired by the Directoire period, presenting a timeless charm that is both inviting and awe-inspiring. Each stool is adorned with beautifully carved rosettes on the knees, which lend a touch of delicate opulence to the overall design. These floral motifs are nestled within the giltwood framework. The seats have been newly reupholstery with neutral toned linen fabric. The fluted apron and legs showcase the artisan's attention to detail and craftsmanship, as these linear grooves create a visually striking effect that complements the overall design. The fluting adds depth and texture, drawing the eye downward to appreciate the other features of these exquisite stools. This pair of French vintage Directoire style giltwood stools is a lovely testament to the beauty and grace of the era. With their carved rosettes, fluted apron and legs and saber lines, these stools offer a luxurious and refined aesthetic that is sure to elevate any space in which they are placed.
