PAIR OF FRENCH GILTWOOD 19TH CENTURY FRAGMENTS MADE INTO TABLE LAMPS

$4,200

A pair of 19th century French architectural fragments made into table lamps. Crafted from 19th-century French giltwood architectural fragments, this exquisite pair of table lamps seamlessly combines antique elegance with modern functionality. Each fragment boasts a luxurious gold finish with a distinctive diamond pattern, exuding timeless charm. These fragments have been skillfully repurposed and mounted onto sleek, custom-made Lucite bases, creating a striking contrast between the rich, opulent texture of the wood and the contemporary, transparent platform. Expertly wired for the USA, these lamps are ready to illuminate any room with warm sophistication. Perfect for adding a touch of history to modern interiors, they work beautifully on bedside tables, console tables, or as accent lighting in a living room. Their versatile design allows them to complement both classic and contemporary settings, offering a chic focal point that blends effortlessly with other décor. The interplay of giltwood and Lucite not only highlights their artistic craftsmanship but also ensures they stand out as unique conversation pieces. Whether placed in a grand foyer or a cozy study, these lamps bring an air of refinement and warmth, making them an exceptional addition to any home.
