PAIR OF FRENCH MIDCENTURY LOUIS XVI STYLE CARVED SIDE CHAIRS WITH NEW UPHOLSTERY

$4,500

A pair of French carved side chairs from the mid-20th century, designed in the Louis XVI style and newly upholstered for modern use. Each chair measures 22 inches wide by 18 inches deep and 38.75 inches high, with a comfortable seat height of 19 inches.

The backs are designed with interlaced circular motifs, their fluid curves meeting at a carved crest with foliate detail. Carved stiles descend into straight supports enriched with subtle decorative accents. The apron is further embellished with rosettes at each corner, while the turned front legs taper gracefully, joined by simple stretchers for stability.

The painted finish, softly worn, adds a touch of patina and enhances the sculptural quality of the carved details. Newly upholstered seats in a neutral fabric lend a fresh, versatile look, allowing these chairs to adapt easily to both traditional and contemporary interiors.

With their harmonious proportions, refined carvings, and renewed comfort, this pair of French midcentury side chairs would make an excellent addition to a dining room, sitting area, or entryway. Their balance of historic charm and updated upholstery ensures both decorative appeal and everyday usability.
