PAIR OF FRENCH NEOCLASSICAL STYLE 1930S PAINTED CHESTS WITH MARBLE TOPS

$18,000

A pair of French Neoclassical style painted wood three-drawer chests from circa 1930 with light grey marble tops, graduated drawers, carved fluted side posts and tapered legs. Elevate your living space with this captivating pair of French Neoclassical style painted wood three-drawer chests from circa 1930. Crafted with sophistication and panache, these chests are a timeless amalgamation of elegant form and practical functionality. The charm of these chests lies in their soft color, beautifully graduated drawers, carved fluted side posts, and subtly tapered legs. These features echo the Neoclassical aesthetic, marked by refined lines and a strong emphasis on symmetry and proportion. The canted side posts and front-angled tapered legs further enhance the visual appeal, adding a gentle twist to the classic design. Coated in a distressed painted finish, the chests exude a rustic charm with the original wood gracefully peeking through. This weathered appearance, coupled with the chests' Neoclassical design elements, gives them an alluring character, poised to become the focal point of any room. These chests are topped with light grey marble, adding a layer of luxe while providing a resilient surface for display or utility. The handcrafted dovetail drawers speak to the high-quality craftsmanship that went into these pieces, ensuring they stand the test of time.
