PAIR OF ITALIAN 18TH CENTURY WALNUT FOUR-DRAWER COMMODES WITH BOOKMATCHED VENEER

$28,800

A pair of Italian 18th century walnut commodes with bookmatched veneer, four drawers and petite carved feet. Immerse yourself in the historical grandeur of this pair of Italian 18th-century walnut commodes. These captivating pieces present the elegance of the Louis-Philippe style, harmoniously blended with the warmth and richness of Italian walnut. Each commode is beautifully adorned with a four-drawer façade, the uppermost exhibiting a streamlined design reminiscent of the understated Louis-Philippe aesthetic. The three lower drawers captivate the eye with an intricate giltwood twisted rope motif framing, a stunning contrast against the rich walnut veneer. The bookmatched veneer technique imbues these commodes with a mesmerizing symmetry, amplifying the natural beauty of the walnut wood grain. As your gaze descends, you are met with petite carved feet, grounding these masterpieces with subtle refinement. Crafted with exceptional attention to detail, these Italian walnut commodes are not only functional storage units but also embody timeless artistry. Add this pair to your collection to bring a touch of 18th-century Italian charm to any space, perfectly suited for a traditional or transitional interior.
