PAIR OF ITALIAN 19TH CENTURY WALNUT BENCHES WITH OUT SCROLLING SIDE SUPPORTS

$15,000

A pair of Italian walnut benches from the 19th century with out-scrolling side supports, tapered legs and new custom linen upholstery. This pair of Italian walnut benches from the 19th century effortlessly combines historic elegance with modern comfort. Each bench boasts a solid walnut frame adorned with intricately carved out-scrolling side supports, featuring delicate pierced motifs that showcase the artisanal craftsmanship of the era. The benches rest on slender, tapered legs, embodying the grace and sophistication characteristic of 19th-century Italian design. Newly upholstered in a custom linen, these benches offer a fresh and contemporary touch while preserving their antique charm. The neutral tone of the linen enhances the rich warmth of the walnut, making these benches versatile additions to any interior decor scheme. Ideal for use in a refined entryway, at the foot of a grand bed, or as additional seating in a living or dining room, these benches merge functionality with artistic beauty. Their historical provenance, coupled with their updated upholstery, allows them to fit seamlessly into both traditional and modern homes, offering a unique focal point that invites conversation. Perfect for adding a touch of Italian elegance to any space, these benches are not only pieces of furniture but also heirlooms that carry the legacy of exquisite craftsmanship.
