PAIR OF ITALIAN MIDCENTURY STEEL AND BRASS SIDE TABLES WITH MARBLE TOPS

$7,200

This elegant pair of Italian midcentury side tables combines neoclassical influence with sleek modernist sensibilities. Each table features a round white marble top with subtle veining, framed by a slim brass gallery that adds a refined touch of warmth. The tops rest on slender steel legs with fluted brass capitals and tapering brass arrow feet, joined by a curving X-stretcher with central ring detail for added stability and style.

The cool silver-toned steel contrasts beautifully with the gold-toned accents, creating a balanced and versatile palette suitable for both traditional and contemporary interiors. Whether used as side tables in a sitting room or nightstands in a bedroom, these sculptural pieces offer a timeless sophistication. The tables' proportions—23 inches in diameter and 26 inches high—make them highly functional without sacrificing visual lightness.

With their harmonious blend of materials and restrained decorative elements, this pair embodies the clean luxury of Italian midcentury design.
