PAIR OF MID-CENTURY RED AND WHITE PORCELAIN DRAGON TEMPLE JARS MADE INTO LAMPS

$2,850

A pair of red and white porcelain temple jars made into table lamps wired for the USA. Illuminate your space with this striking pair of mid-century porcelain table lamps, transformed from traditional temple jars. Each piece features a rich red and white palette adorned with intricate dragon and floral motifs, blending centuries-old symbolism with modern sensibilities. The dragons, emblems of power and fortune, are beautifully balanced by the delicate floral patterns that evoke a sense of harmony and growth. These lamps are mounted on custom giltwood bases, adding a touch of warmth and elegance to their bold design. Ideal for those seeking a statement piece, these lamps bring a vibrant and dynamic element to any room. Whether placed on a console in the entryway, flanking a sofa in the living room, or adding a pop of color to a bedroom nightstand, they instantly elevate the ambiance. Perfect for those who appreciate the fusion of traditional craftsmanship and mid-century style, these lamps offer both aesthetic appeal and practical lighting. The intricate patterns invite closer inspection, making them not just functional pieces but conversation starters that enrich your home's decor.
