PORTUGUESE EARLY 19TH CENTURY BAROQUE STYLE WALNUT WRITING TABLE WITH DRAWERS

$14,000

A substantial Portuguese writing table from the early 19th century, featuring a richly patinated rectangular top, bold turned legs, and a sculptural stretcher base. The table is designed with strong Baroque influence, visible in the robust proportions, rope-carved edge molding, deeply turned supports, and decorative brass hardware.

The apron (24"H) is fitted with multiple drawer fronts accented by brass escutcheons, giving the piece a handsome architectural rhythm on all sides. The construction suggests it was intended to present beautifully in the center of a room, making it well suited as a library table, writing table, center table, or statement desk.

The warm dark wood surface has depth and character, with natural tonal variation, age marks, and a mellow patina that give the table a collected, historic presence. Its generous scale makes it especially useful in a study, entry hall, living room, or library, where it can function as both a practical surface and a strong decorative anchor.

A beautifully scaled Iberian table with rich surface character, substantial construction, and timeless decorative appeal.
