REGENCY ROUND WALNUT CENTER TABLE WITH CARVED EDGE AND PEDESTAL BASE, CIRCA 1840

$12,600

This English Regency center table, crafted circa 1840, showcases the refined elegance and symmetrical balance characteristic of the period. Made of beautifully figured walnut, the circular top displays a striking radial veneer pattern that draws the eye outward, framed by a boldly carved rope-edge molding that adds both texture and distinction.

The table is supported by a tapered central pedestal that rises from a richly carved circular base. The plinth features a segmented design that mirrors the radial inlay of the top, enhancing the table's overall harmony and craftsmanship. With a diameter of 54 inches and a height of 30 inches (base diameter approximately 30.75 inches), this piece offers a substantial yet graceful presence, ideal as a center table, breakfast table, or library piece.

Its warm tone, balanced proportions, and Regency-era carving make it a timeless addition to both traditional and transitional interiors. A fine example of 19th-century English cabinetmaking, this table offers both functional surface space and a sculptural architectural anchor within a room.
