SET OF FOUR ENGLISH CHINOISERIE 19TH CENTURY BLACK AND GOLD NESTING TABLES

$4,750

A set of four English black and gold nesting tables from the 19th century with Chinoiserie décor, slender turned legs and bow front stretcher. This exquisite set of four English nesting tables from the 19th century features a stunning black and gold finish, adorned with intricate Chinoiserie décor. Each table presents a bow-front stretcher and slender turned legs, adding to their delicate elegance. The tables are graduated in size to tuck neatly beneath one another, optimizing space while providing versatile functionality. The tops of these tables are beautifully decorated with vibrant, detailed scenes depicting figures engaged in daily activities, set against backdrops of traditional architecture and lush vegetation. This vivid imagery not only adds visual interest but also captures the essence of Chinoiserie style, which was highly popular in the 19th century for its exotic and romantic allure. These nesting tables are perfect for use in a living room or lounge area, where they can be pulled out to serve guests, and then conveniently stored to save space. They also make an excellent decorative addition, enhancing any room with a touch of historical elegance and a narrative of distant lands. Ideal for displaying collectibles, lamps, or serving tea, these tables combine practicality with the luxurious style of the past, making them a cherished addition to any home.
