SIGNED CHARLES BURDICK MIDCENTURY ACRYLIC HORSE PAINTING IN FRAME UNDER GLASS

$3,500

A signed Charles Burdick acrylic horse painting from the Midcentury period, in frame under glass. Capture the spirit of the Midcentury era with this captivating signed Charles Burdick acrylic horse painting. Burdick's bold use of acrylic paint brings to life a dynamic grouping of white horses, their movements captured with an energetic brushstroke and a subtle palette. The painting's white horses, reminiscent of wild steeds, exude a sense of freedom and untamed spirit. Their forms, rendered with bold strokes and nuanced shading, appear to leap off the canvas, captivating the viewer with their energy and vitality. The burgundy-colored matting provides a striking contrast to the painting's white horses, enhancing the overall composition and adding a touch of sophistication. The signature "Burdick" in red, lower right corner, adds a personal touch to the piece, authenticating it as a work from the celebrated Midcentury artist. With its vibrant energy and Midcentury Modern aesthetic, this Charles Burdick acrylic horse painting is sure to add a touch of dynamism and personality to any space. Imagine it adorning the wall of a living room, its energetic brushstrokes adding a touch of movement to the room's décor. Envision it gracing a hallway or entryway, welcoming guests with its captivating presence and colors. Or, picture it in a home office, inspiring creativity and motivation with its dynamic portrayal of equine energy.
