SILVER METAL LOW DRINKS TABLE WITH BLACK GLASS TOP AND ACORN FINIAL, SOLD EACH

$2,400

Two silver metal low drinks tables from the early 20th century, with black glass tops and acorn finials, priced and sold $2,400 each. Created during the first quarter of the 20th century, each table features a circular black glass top secured within a frame adorned with wavy motifs. Raised on straight legs with scrolling foliage, the table is strengthened by a cross stretcher accented with an acorn finial (slightly different on each). With their elegant lines and subtle décor, these silver metal low drinks tables circa 1920 will bring a stylish presence to any living room, purchased as a single or a pair.
