SMALL SIGNED PERRET ET VIBERT LATE 19TH CENTURY CHINOISERIE BAMBOO CHAIR

$5,500

A small signed Perret et Vibert Chinoiserie bamboo chair from the late 19th century with mother of pearl inlaid black lacquered plaque on the back splat and rattan seat. Discover the exquisite craftsmanship and historical allure of this charming late 19th-century Chinoiserie bamboo chair by Perret et Vibert, esteemed Parisian manufacturers renowned for their artistic furniture designs. The chair features a striking black lacquered back splat, beautifully inlaid with mother of pearl depicting figures engaged in daily activities, a quintessential element of Chinoiserie art that captures lively scenes from Asian cultures.

Crafted from bamboo, the chair's frame boasts naturalistic details and a warm, inviting tone that complements the luxurious, shimmering mother of pearl inlay. A small authentication plaque on the back further enhances its collectible value, proudly displaying "Perret & Vibert, Fabriquants, 33 rue du 4 Septembre Paris."

Ideal as a focal piece in an eclectic decor setting, this chair can grace a corner of your living room, add elegance to your bedroom, or serve as an artistic accent in your study. It offers both functionality and a captivating aesthetic appeal, making it a perfect choice for those who appreciate the fusion of art and utility in their home decor. This Chinoiserie chair not only provides a tasteful seating option but also acts as a splendid decorative element that invites admiration and conversation.
