SPANISH COLONIAL 18TH CENTURY WALNUT TABLE WITH FOUR RICHLY CARVED DRAWERS

$36,000

A Spanish Colonial walnut server table from the 18th century, with four drawers, richly carved décor, turned legs and nice patina. Crafted from walnut during the 18th century, this Spanish Colonial table features a long and narrow rectangular top sitting above four drawers. Each drawer, showcasing wooden pulls, presents a richly carved décor made of stars from which stylized foliage is radiating to form a rectangular frame. The drawers are separated from one another through carved diamond motifs. The table is raised on six turned legs connected to one another through an H-Form stretcher. The ensemble is mounted on bun feet. The sides are decorated with motifs echoed from the front while the back is adorned with raised panels. Boasting a nice patina revealing its great age, this Spanish Colonial walnut table from the 18th century will make for a great addition to any home, whether placed in a living room or dining room.
