SPANISH MIDCENTURY GILT METAL SEMI-FLUSH CROWN CHANDELIER WITH STYLIZED FOLIAGE

$1,975

A Spanish vintage gilt metal two-bulb semi-flush crown light fixture from the mid-20th century, with stylized foliage motifs, frosted glass and new wiring. This Spanish vintage gilt metal semi-flush crown light fixture from the mid-20th century captivates with its elegant design and refined craftsmanship. The fixture features a beautiful crown-like structure adorned with stylized foliage motifs, adding a touch of nature-inspired elegance to its overall appearance. The metal's gilt finish enhances the intricate details, lending a warm and luxurious glow to the piece. The fixture is designed to house two bulbs, which are nestled within frosted glass shades. The frosted glass diffuses the light softly, creating a warm and inviting ambiance ideal for various interior settings. The subtle interplay of light and shadow cast by the metal foliage adds depth and texture to the room, enhancing its aesthetic appeal. Wired for the USA, this vintage light fixture has been updated with new wiring, ensuring it meets modern safety standards while retaining its classic charm. Perfect for use in an entryway, hallway, or bedroom, this semi-flush crown light fixture adds a touch of Spanish elegance to any space. Its unique design and vintage allure make it a versatile choice for both traditional and contemporary interiors, offering a stylish lighting solution that is both functional and decorative.
