SPANISH WOODEN BAROQUE STYLE 1860S FRATINO CONSOLE TABLE WITH LYRE SHAPED LEGS

$6,995

This Spanish Fratino console table from the mid 19th century features a rectangular top with beautiful patina over a baroque style trestle base. Two lyre-shaped legs are connected to one another as well as the table top via a beautifully carved cross stretcher. There is a perfect balance between the simplicity of the top and the rich carving of the base. Placed against a wall in a living room, library, or foyer, this Spanish lyre legs console table would be a great addition, under a gorgeous mirror or painting, with your favorite decorative objects atop.
