VINTAGE ENGLISH STANDING PUG COMPOSITION SCULPTURE WITH GLASS EYES AND COLLAR

$1,275

A vintage English composition standing dog sculpture from the 20th century, with glass eyes and red collar. Crafted in England during the midcentury period, this dog sculpture features a pug standing proudly and firmly on his four paws, in an alert position. His facial expression, accentuated by the presence of his glass eyes, is very serious as he is focused on a scene invisible to us. His tail curled up and his ears folded downwards, we know we are in good company. Placed anywhere in a home from a living room to a foyer, he will enliven any space beautifully.
